Doctor of Philosophy in Mechanical Engineering

Curriculum
Students in the PhD in Mechanical Engineering program will be instructed in advanced core principles and have the chance to conduct research that will ultimately help solve problems in energy, health care, security and transportation.

Career Options
Professor; Research Scientists at corporate or national laboratories; Research and Development Engineer for the design, manufacturing, control, and operation of components and systems in energy, health care, security and transportation; Consulting Engineer in the public and private sectors

Degree Program
The PhD in Mechanical Engineering requires 75 semester credit hours minimum beyond the baccalaureate degree.

For complete admission and degree requirements, view the Graduate Catalog at http://catalog.utdallas.edu.

Contact Information
Ashley Bradberry
megrad@utdallas.edu
972-883-4652

Erik Jonsson School of Engineering and Computer Science, EC 38
The University of Texas at Dallas
800 West Campbell Road
Richardson, TX 75080-3021
Office - ECSN 2.710

www.ecs.utdallas.edu