Individuals with social communication disorders secondary to autism often struggle with social communication. The demands of college and work can be very challenging. Young Adult Social Communication Groups support young adults ages 18 to 30 in developing important skills necessary in the college and work settings. The program is led by a licensed speech-language pathologist with the support of graduate student clinicians. Groups meet weekly.

Group 1 topics include:
- Initiating conversation with peers
- Commenting during conversation
- Topic maintenance
- Giving an appropriate amount of information
- Finding/keeping a job
- Success in school

Group 2 topics include:
- Independent living skills
- Problem-solving in daily life
- Planning and keeping a schedule
- Considering the future
- Professional communication
- Self-advocacy
- Creating and deepening friendships
- Planning for a career

Cost: $300 per fall and spring session / $150 for summer session + $75 enrollment fee
(Free for UT Dallas students.)

When: Mondays
Group 1: 3:30 - 4:30 p.m. | Group 2: 4:30 - 5:30 p.m.

Where: Callier Center Richardson
2895 Facilities Way | Richardson, Texas 75080

To enroll: An intake session must be scheduled for all new participants who are not UT Dallas students to determine placement in Group 1 or Group 2. Placement is determined by the group leader based on individual needs. Intakes are 30 minutes and $50 each. Contact cgollis@utdallas.edu to schedule. UT Dallas students will be assigned to Group 2 and do not require an intake, but must contact cgollis@utdallas.edu to sign up.

Contact: Christina Gollis | cgollis@utdallas.edu

---

Callier Center for Communication Disorders
The Callier Center for Communication Disorders helps people communicate throughout their lives — to hear and be heard, to understand and be understood. For more than 50 years we have provided treatment, training and research to help people of all ages hear, speak and connect with others.