

UTD Chess Club plans tournament

* The University of Texas at Dallas Chess Club, in conjunction with the Dallas Chess Club, plans a scholastic tournament starting at 7:30 a.m., Saturday, Oct. 22, in the UTD student union.

The fee is $24 if postmarked by Saturday, Oct. 15, and $35 thereafter. UTD is located at 800 West Campbell Road.

■ For more information, contact James A. Stallings at 972-883-2898 or e-mail james.stallings@utdallas.edu.

UTD 'Unreal' exhibit includes premiere piece

* The University of Texas at Dallas features "Unreal," an art exhibit curated by faculty member Greg Metz. The exhibition features the southwest premiere of David Hanson's interactive installation piece, "The Resurrection of Philip K. Dick," which The Wall Street Journal called "the most advanced robot" on display at NextFest 2005 in Chicago this summer. The exhibition runs through Nov. 12 at the visual arts building, with hours from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. weekdays and 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturdays.

■ For more information, call 972-883-2787.

Faculty at Five series will feature pianists

* The Faculty at Five informal concert series at the University of Texas at Dallas, featuring faculty members and guests performing and talking about music, resumes Monday, Oct. 10, with a performance by pianists Annie Lin and Steve Hall. The concert, scheduled for 5 p.m. in the Jonsson Performance Hall on the UTD campus, is free.

■ Visit <http://ah.utdallas.edu/> under Events Season.