The Diversity Scholars Program at UT Dallas targets students who show significant financial need and have a record of academic excellence in high school or community college. Students receive more than just a financial award through this program. Diversity Scholars also receive academic support from program staff to assist them in successfully transitioning to UT Dallas.
SCHOLARSHIP ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

The Diversity Scholars Program can be used to cover education related expenses including tuition, fees and housing. Each student will receive $5,000 per year ($2,500 per semester) for a maximum of eight semesters of undergraduate study.

The student must:
• be admitted to the University,
• be an undergraduate student enrolling for the first time at UT Dallas as a full-time student,
• have a record of academic merit in high school or community college,
• have a GPA of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale if transferring from community college,
• have financial need as determined by the UT Dallas Financial Aid Office, and
• complete the financial aid application (FAFSA or TAFSA).

Applications are available online at utdallas.edu/community
