We make it easy for students to get involved at UT Dallas.

Whether you’re looking for ways to stay active, express your artistic side or get involved with surrounding communities, opportunities abound.

Competing at the NCAA Division III level, the UT Dallas intercollegiate athletic program is one of the most successful in the American Southwest Conference (ASC).

The program currently offers 13 sports teams, several of which have become title contenders. The teams have made their mark on conference competition in many ways:

- Men’s basketball won the ASC championship in 2014 and advanced to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA tournament.
- Not to be outdone, the women’s basketball team carried the honors in 2015 by winning the ASC championship and also advancing to the Sweet 16.
- Men’s soccer won the regular season title and hosted the ASC tournament in 2014 and then won the league title in 2015.
- Women’s soccer has advanced ASC championship match nine times over the past 14 seasons.
- Women’s volleyball has repeatedly hosted the ASC championship tournament, earning the league title again in 2015.
- The men’s and women’s tennis teams won the ASC championship in 2013.
- Baseball has advanced to eight straight ASC tournaments, finishing as championship runner up in 2015.
- Softball has returned to the top of the ASC and advanced to the championship tournament semifinals in 2016.

UT Dallas also has a variety of intramural sports activities as well as over 20 different club sports programs, including archery, fencing, rugby and Ultimate Frisbee.

Visit utdallas.edu/athletics and utdallas.edu/recsports to find out more.

Student Organizations

With more than 300 student organizations at UT Dallas, you’re bound to find one that is right for you.

Our student organizations span a wide range of categories, including: academics, arts and music, culture, honors, Greek, religious, political, educational and special interest. We also have award-winning student media that include: The Mercury newspaper, Radio UTD, UTD TV and the student opinion publication, AMP, A Modest Proposal.

Student organizations enthusiastically participate in, and help organize, Homecoming Week which is celebrated by a weeklong series of fun giveaways and events, including:

- Nighttime Homecoming 5K, complete with glow-in-the-dark accessories.
- A parade of custom-designed floats, live music and Comet spirit.
- Cardboard boat regatta, where teams build and race boats made entirely from duct tape and cardboard.
- The homecoming tailgate preceding the women’s and men’s basketball games.

Visit utdallas.edu/sof for more information.

Creating Traditions

At UT Dallas, traditional activities, such as Oozeball and Splatter Dance, provide opportunities for students to have fun while engaging in the campus community. However, you also have the opportunity to create new campus traditions. If we don’t have a group that you’re looking for, you can always create your own.