

Robert Rousselot (Located in Small Collection Box 4)

Robert Rousselot was a member of the American Volunteer Group in the Chinese Air Force (Flying Tigers). After the war, he served as a chief pilot and Vice President of Operations for CAT. For more information, see William Leary's Perilous Missions.

- 1 CAT calendars 1950
Photographs of CAT aircraft in flight and on the ground (2 copies)
- 2 CAT timetables; promotional items featuring the Mandarin Jet
- 3 Correspondence; primarily from Rousselot to family members: letters, postcards, telegrams
- 4 Newspaper clippings: Most are undated articles that mention Rousselot from such publications as The China Post and The Japan Times. Includes special sections featuring CAT's 15th anniversary 1961 Includes the 1st anniversary of the Mandarin 1962 Jet service
- 5 Photographs 1940-60
31 black and white prints, most of which are dated and identified. Subjects include CAT facilities, personnel, and planes
- 6-7 Photographs
- 8 Miscellaneous:

Taiwan Golf and Country Club membership list 1963
Rousselot calling cards
Records from Chennault memorial service
"The Ballad of Earthquake McGoon"
Investigation report of typhoon
Travel brochures: Bangkok, Hong Kong, Taiwan