

School of Arts and Humanities and the Career Center present

Life after the Diploma: History and Literature Edition

Thursday, February 9, 2012

3 -4 pm, Jonsson Performance Hall (JO 2.604)

Historical Studies and Literary Studies majors are invited to learn tips to best navigate life after graduation. Have you found yourself wondering:

“What can I do with a History Degree?”

“What can I do with a degree in Literary Studies?”

A panel of experts will share valuable advice to help you figure out the job world. Speakers include:

Alumna - Kelsey Ciluffo, the Assistant City Attorney for the City of Dallas. She was a McDermott Scholar and graduated in 2005 from UT Dallas with a BA in Literary Studies. She received her JD in 2009 from George Washington University.

Faculty - Dr. R. David Edmunds, a historian of Native American people and the American West. The author or editor of ten books and over one hundred essays, articles, and other shorter publications.

and Staff from the Career Center

ah.utdallas.edu or utdallas.edu/career

Patrons with disabilities who are needing special assistance, interpreter or captioning to attend this presentation should call 972-883-2982 no later than 72 hours prior to the event. UT Dallas, 800 W. Campbell Rd., Richardson, TX 75080

