As a student at UT Dallas you have certain rights afforded you under the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (also known as the Buckley Amendment, or FERPA). The FERPA regulations were written specifically to guarantee students three primary rights. [§99.7] FERPA guarantees students the right to inspect and review education records. You have the right to know what UT Dallas is maintaining about you. You also have the right to amend those records, if errors are present. FERPA further guarantees you, the student, with the right to have some control over the disclosure of information from your education record.

The following pages contain explanations and forms for the disclosure of student information. A different form must be used if you are a dependent son/daughter or an independent student. Additionally, you have the right to allow third-party individuals/groups/organizations access to certain information. You also have the right to repeal these permissions.
Instructions for completing the
PARENTS CERTIFICATION OF DEPENDENCY FORM

FERPA is a federal regulation and uses federal definitions.

The Family Education Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 provides privacy protection of a student’s academic record and limits the release of such records without the student’s consent. The Act further provides that the University may disclose such records to parents or legal guardians if the student is a dependent as defined in Section 152 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, if the Student has indicated in writing to the University that his or her parents may access the Student Education Records in accordance with the designation.

The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) requires a child who is a dependent be both:
• Under the age of 24
• Claimed on the parent’s most recent federal income tax return

The PARENTS CERTIFICATION OF DEPENDENCY FORM must be completed by the parent/legal guardian and the Student. If a tax dependent Student's parents are divorced, both parents may have access to the Student's Education Records, so long as at least one parent is designated by the student.

This authorization, if exercised, will be valid until the end of the calendar year (December 31st) and must be renewed annually to remain in effect. Renewals may be submitted beginning January 1st of the following year; however, renewals must include the new federal income tax return for the most recent tax year to be accepted.

With few exceptions you are entitled, on your request, to be informed about the information UT Dallas collects about you. Under Sections 552.021 and 552.023 of the Texas Government Code, you are entitled to receive and review the information. Under Section 559.004 of the Texas Government Code, you are entitled to have UT Dallas correct information about you that is held by us and that is incorrect. Be assured your UTD records are protected from unauthorized disclosure by federal law.

Your UT Dallas identification number is requested as it is a unique identification number maintained to assure the correct student record is being updated, for tracking purposes and for state and federal report requirements. The disclosure of such information is voluntary. Your disclosure of your UTD identification number will be governed by the Public Information Act (Chapter 552 of the Texas Government Code).
