

UTD AMAS Disclosure Information

Welcome to the UTD Association of Mexican Alumni Students

Terms and Conditions of use

Person who register for the University Of Texas In Dallas (UTD) Association Of Mexican Alumni Students - AMAS, become a 'Member'.

Members must be an Alumni or (those who have studied at UT System; either graduating or otherwise: Non-graduating Alumni, Junior Year Abroad students, etc.) or friends (*current parents, supporters, etc.) of the University of Texas.

By accepting membership, you consent to receive emails from the association, informing of services, future events, etc. The email address we would use for this would be your personal / home email address.

Any data you enter into the registration form will be treated confidentially, respect, and in adherence to the Data Protection Act; Data will not be disclosed to external organizations other than those acting as agents for the UTD AMAS.

The only data made compulsorily visible to other members of the association is to be found in the Alumni Directory. This data consists of your full name (with maiden name / last name at time of graduation and nick name / 'known as' if applicable), degree / award, subject of study and year of graduation / leaving.

Members may also opt to display –

Members may also opt to display personal / work email addresses, personal / work web page addresses, phone number and your current working industry, profession and / or position. Opting to share this information can be carried by providing this information in the optional fields. Please bear in mind that this information is only viewable by fellow members and not to the general public.

The Alumni Directory is intended to facilitate individual communication of a personal nature between members. Use of the directory for the creation of mailing lists for marketing purposes, whether manual or electronic, or for any other commercial use is strictly prohibited. Inappropriate use of the information included in the Alumni Directory may lead to suspension or cancellation of membership.

By agreeing to all of the above, you are deemed to have consented that this data may be disclosed to other members of the UTD AMAS. This includes disclosure to countries outside the United States and Mexico.