Pay-by-Space (LUKE) Information

Pay-by-Space (also known as the LUKE machines) is the cashless metered parking option on campus.

How to Use Pay-By-Space

1. Press any button on the keypad to start.
2. Enter your parking space number, or “stall number,” then push the green “OK” button.
3. Press "1" to Purchase Ticket.
4. Press "1" to pay by credit card.
5. Enter the number of hours for which you would like to park and press the green “OK” button.
6. Insert your credit card for processing.
7. Collect and keep your receipt. The time your parking expires is printed on your receipt.

Pay-By-Space FAQ

1. What are Pay-By-Space pay stations?
Pay-By-Space pay stations are electronic cashless parking meters which manage parking spaces in various parking lots on the UT Dallas campus.

2. Where are Pay-By-Space lots located on the UT Dallas campus?
Pay-By-Space operates in parking lots F and K, and portions of Lots G, I and M. On the campus parking map, black and white cross-hatched lots on the map are Pay-by-Space lots.

3. What are the Pay-by-Space lot capacities?
Our Pay-by-Space lot capacities are:

- 25 – Lot F
- 21 – Lot G
- 63 – Lot I-North
- 45 – Lot K
- 60 – Lot M-West
- 100 – PS-1
- 60 – PS-3

4. How much does it cost to park in a Pay-by-Space lot
The cost to park in a Pay-by-Space lot is $1 per hour, plus $1 per transaction.
5. Why use automated pay stations?
This technology offers advantages to both the user and the University including:

- Convenient payment options – The pay stations accept credit or debit cards bearing the Visa, MasterCard, Discover or American Express logo.

- Reduced maintenance – Electronic payment allows UT Dallas to save labor costs associated with emptying traditional coin-operated meters, which previously were used on campus.

6. How do I use a Pay-By-Space kiosk?
The kiosks prompt users with on-screen, step-by-step directions to guide users through the transaction process.

7. How do I add time to my parking?
If your time has not yet expired, you can add additional time by entering your space number (located on your receipt) and selecting “2” to add more time.” Press “OK” and then key in the “Add Time Number” from your receipt. Follow the prompts and a new receipt will print showing your adjusted expiration time. If your original time has expired, start a new parking transaction.

8. What types of payment are accepted?
Pay-By-Space pay stations only accept credit or debit cards bearing a Visa, MasterCard, Discover or American Express logo.

9. When do I have to pay to park in a metered space?
As long as you are parking in a Pay-by-Space lot, you must pay the parking fee. Time for any day expires at midnight; so if you are parked in a space at midnight, you must add more time. If time has already expired, you must begin a new transaction at midnight.

10. If I pay for a spot all day, can I come and go?
Pay-by-Space does not support “in and out” privileges. If you leave and return, you must start a new transaction.

11. What do I do if a Pay-By-Space kiosk isn’t working?
If the unit seems to be malfunctioning, contact Parking and Transportation Services at 972.883.7777, and a staff member will assist you.

12. What if I paid to park but am mistakenly given a parking citation?
The most frequent error is that drivers enter the wrong space number when they park. Your receipt provides proof of payment. Take both the receipt and the citation to Parking and Transportation Services (SSB 2.300) to discuss having the ticket dismissed.

Coupon Code Information

Parking Services has a simplified process for guest parking those departments wishing to utilize our Pay-by-Space (metered) parking areas using “Coupon Codes”.

How to Use Pay-by-Space Coupons

1. Press any button on the keypad to start.
2. Enter your parking space number, or “stall number”, then push the green “OK” button.
3. Press “1” to Purchase Ticket.
4. Press “2” to Pay by Coupon.
5. Enter the number of hours for which you would like to park and press the green “OK” button.
6. Enter your coupon code number and press the green "OK" button.
7. Collect and keep your receipt. The time your parking expires is printed on your receipt.

Coupon Code FAQ

1. What is a Coupon Code?
A coupon code is a unique 8-digit number that departments use for their guests to utilize Pay-by-Space parking.

2. How do I get a Coupon Code?
Parking staff will create coupons code for a UT Dallas department. Departments will then distribute their personalized code to their guests to use in Pay-by-Space parking spots on campus. Departments may enroll in a monthly coupon code program in which they will receive a new, unique coupon code each month for frequent utilization. For special events, departments can request a coupon code unique to that event.

3. What does the guest do with the Coupon Code?
When guests arrive at the parking lot, they will stop at the LUKE kiosk meters and enter the amount of time they need to park, followed by their coupon number, so that they will not be personally charged the $1 per hour rate.

4. How does my department pay for the Coupon Code?
At the end of the month, a report will be run for each coupon code to determine usage. Parking Services will then report this information to the responsible department/group and they will complete an InterDepartmental Transfer (IDT) to process payment.
5. Does the guest need a parking permit ("dash-pass") to put on their car if they park in Pay-by-Space and use a Coupon Code?
Individual parking permits will no longer be needed for metered parking, as the parking kiosks will record the exact number of spaces and hours that are used each month.

6. What do I do if I have a special event and want to utilize Pay-by-Space?
For large events, Parking Services can issue you a unique coupon code that is ONLY valid on the day(s) of the event, or limited to a certain amount of transactions.

For more information about Coupon Codes, contact Parking and Transportation Services at 972.883.7777 or park@utdallas.edu.
