

SENIOR YEAR EXPERIENCE utdallas.edu/srye

40 things to do before you graduate . . .

- Spray paint the Spirit Rock
- Rub Cecil Green's head for good luck
- Write thank you notes to UTD faculty, staff and/or friends who have made a significant impact on your college experience
- Have a picnic at the Gazebo
- Be an extreme fan at a UT Dallas Chess match
- Grab a cup of coffee with a professor at the PUB
- Use your UTD DART pass to get to the Dallas Zoo
- Take advantage of a Career EXPO - it will pay off
- Enjoy a meal in the new Dining Hall
- Compete in an intramural event
- Explore every floor of McDermott Library
- Help build and ride on a homecoming float
- Complete the Career Center graduate follow-up survey
- Participate in a service event through the Office of Student Volunteerism
- Cheer your loudest at an athletic event
- Visit a campus office you've never visited before
- Take a picture with TEMOC
- Buy a brick for Legacy Lane
- Polish your resume' with help from the Career Center
- Recite a poem at Underground Poetry Circus
- Ride or walk the UTD bike trail
- Do the Comet-O on the Comet Café stage
- Join a student organization and leave your legacy
- Share all your UT Dallas wisdom with a freshman
- Eat as much free pizza as possible
- Attend a Student Government meeting
- Say "hello" to a stranger
- Read the back of the free bluebooks in the SG office
- Checkout alumni benefits at alumni.utdallas.edu
- Attend a Senior Seminar Series event
- Take a picture on the Seniors Bench at Gazebo Park
- Request letters of recommendation from professors and work supervisors early in the fall
- Attend an Arts & Humanities production
- Participate in Comet Countdown to commencement events
- Take a picture while doing the "whoosh" under the "Love Jack"
- Contribute to the Class Challenge through the Office of Alumni Relations
- Thank a UTD Police Officer
- Invite family members to Family Day
- Take before and after pictures of campus construction as a reminder of UTD's progress
- Senior Year Experience Program - Check it out!