

The University of Texas at Dallas
The Bryce and Jonelle Jordan Scholarship for Creative and Performing Arts
Application for 2012-2013

Requirements

- Scholarships are awarded to undergraduates. Scholarships are awarded to applicants who are or will be full-time students (undergraduates must be enrolled in 12 SCH) .
- Preference is given to students who major in degrees offered by the School of Arts and Humanities. Scholarships may be given to students who minor in the arts.
- Scholarship recipients must enroll in at least one course in the Art and Performance area each semester (usually an upper level performing ensemble or studio course, or an upper level creative writing course).
- Students must have at least a 3.0 GPA to qualify for the award and to continue to receive the award .
- If a student drops a course and/or earns less than the required GPA, s/he will be placed on probation the following semester and her/his case will be reviewed by the Bryce Jordan Scholarship committee at the end of the probationary semester.
- Students who receive the award for a specific academic year must reapply to receive the award the following academic year.
- Students can apply during their junior year but will receive one-half of the award (for the fall semester of their senior year) if they graduate in December. They will not be funded as UT Dallas graduate students.
