LEADERSHIP:

Program Head, Economics, University of Texas at Dallas. The Department has 13 full-time faculty members, approximately 200 majors, and offers BA, BS, MS and PhD Degrees.

Mediator, appointed by the UTD Committee on Faculty Standing and Conduct for the purposes of resolving faculty grievances.

Chair, Faculty Executive Committee, Rhodes College. I was elected as the social sciences representative to this committee, which meets biweekly with the Dean of the College on matters of policy (including the faculty issues of budget formation and departmental applications for new lines). During my tenure we moved from a 3:3 to a 3:2 teaching load. We also re-wrote the faculty handbook, including the college's standards for promotion and tenure, and faculty evaluation for purposes of remuneration. During the 2003-06 I was Chair of the Committee and was Secretary during 2002-03.

Chair, Provost/Vice President of Academic Affairs Search Committee, Rhodes College, 2005-06. Duties: assist President in interviewing and selecting a search consultant; create ad and extended job description; vet candidate applications; interview candidate's references; conduct airport interviews of semi-finalists; coordinate and conduct campus interviews of finalists.

Chair, Task Force on Collegiate Licensing and Labor Code of Conduct, University of Alabama. The Task Force was charged with proposing a labor code of conduct for the production of its licensed apparel and selection of an independent enforcement body to monitor adherence to the code. I wrote the University of Alabama's labor code of conduct and was the University's representative on this issue for television, radio, and newspaper interviews.

University-Wide Tenure and Promotion Committee. University of Texas at Dallas (2010-2012);
Rhodes College (2006-2007).

Chair, Recruiting Committee, Rhodes College 2001-02 (microeconomics), 2002-03 (statistics), 2005-06 (microeconomics). I was also on four recruiting committees at the University of Alabama and three at UTD (including a Dean search).
