For a personal witness, evangelism and apologetics

Question 1
Is there a god? How do you know? Is there God one and only one God? Is God of all creation, heaven and earth?

Is there a heaven and a hell, a life after death, and a judgment before God.

Question 2
What is wrong to go to the hell?

If my parents or beloved ones are in hell and suffering right now, shouldn’t I also go there to share their pain and agony?

I don’t think that it will be peaceful and joyful if I watch down there from the heaven’s balcony, knowing that somewhere out there in hell my beloved ones are in fire, crying out in pain and agony.

Why do I have to be saved or to go to the heaven?

Question 1:
Is there a god? How do you know?

Is there God one and only one God?

Is God of all creation, heaven and earth?

Is there a heaven and a hell, a life after death, and a judgment before God.

=> Pascal’s wager.

Question 2:
What is wrong to go to the hell?

If my parents or beloved ones are in hell and suffering right now, shouldn’t I also go there to share their pain and agony?

I don’t think that it will be peaceful and joyful if I watch down there from the heaven’s balcony, knowing that somewhere out there in hell my beloved ones are in fire, crying out in pain and agony.

Why do I have to be saved or to go to the heaven?

=>