Question 1: Why do we have to believe in Jesus? Can I just believe in God, God Father, or any other god of any of the world religions?

Question 2: If Jesus is the son of God, died for our sin and resurrected? Can I see him? If he is all eternal and all powerful, can he prove himself to me? I will give my life and myself forever to him, but first I need his proof about himself.

Question 3: If I believe in Jesus before my death, I am saved and will go to the heaven. Good, I will do that just before my death. Is there anything wrong with this? I may not be a great Christian but a least one. But it is good enough for me to enter the Kingdom of God. Right?

John 16:7-11 NIV.
7But I tell you the truth: It is for your good that I am going away. Unless I go away, the Counselor will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you. 8When he comes, he will convict the world of guilt in regard to sin and righteousness and judgment. 9In regard to sin, it is because men do not believe in me; 10in regard to righteousness, it is because I am going to the Father, where you cannot see me no longer; 11in regard to judgment, it is because the prince of the world now stands condemned.

2. Righteousness (16:10), cf. Romans 3:22-26, Psalm 110:1
