Internship Eligibility - Natural Sciences and Mathematics

Undergraduate and Graduate students

- Instructor - Mickey Choate, Associate Director Career Development, Career Center
- Undergraduate - BIS 4V04 (internship, variable credit: 1-3 credit hours) or BIS 4310 (co-op, 3 credit hours); Graduate - MAIS 5V38 (variable credit: 1-3 credit hours)
- Letter grade
- Option to repeat course if it fits in degree plan
- General Career Center eligibility
- Report your internship in CometCareers and select academic credit if desired. Your Career Consultant will assist you with getting instructor’s approval.

- Graduate Biotechnology and Molecular and Cell Biology students have the option for BIOL 6V50, Internship in Biotechnology/Biomedicine. It is 1-6 credit hours (variable credit) and students must have their internship approved by department to get registered.

- Graduate Geosciences students have the option for GEOS 5300, Cooperative Geosciences. It is 3 credit hours (not variable credit) and students must have their internship approved by department to get registered.

- Pre-health students have the option for HLTH 4304, Internship. It is 3 credit hours and students must register through Dr. Kathleen Byrnes, kathleen.byrnes@utdallas.edu.

*Note: Tuition and fees associated with internship course will be assessed.

Questions?
Mohammed Rahman | Associate Director of Internships, Career Center
mohammed.rahman@utdallas.edu | 972-883-2943 | Student Services Building 3.300
utdallas.edu/career