Country Commerce and Country Finance

There are three ways to access Country Commerce and Country Finance
   a. Gale Cengage Business Insights: Essentials
   b. EBSCOhost Business Source Complete
   c. Factiva

Country Commerce and Country Finance provides comprehensive coverage of a country’s business environment. These reports are published annually, with quarterly updates, by Economist Intelligence Unit (EIU).

These resources give up-to-date information about a country’s financial and political operating conditions.

From the library’s web page www.utdallas.edu/library click on the Discover button.

Next enter “eiu country commerce” or “eiu country finance” in the Search box. Be sure to use quotes around the term. Next, use the drop down arrow to change the selection to Library Catalog. Then click the Search button.

The result list will show the country reports.

Use the “Sorted by:” drop down arrow to change from Relevance to Date-newest.

Next scroll down to select the country you are researching. There will be two choices for access:
   1. Click on Check Availability to get the Call Number for the print edition.
2. Click on View Online to use the online version of the report. Full-text of reports might be available in three different databases: Gale Cengage Business Insights: Essentials, EBSCOhost Business Source Complete or Factiva.

a. Gale Cengage Business Insights: Essentials
   If the resource is available online in Gale Cengage Business Insights: Essentials click the link:

   The link to the full-text will open in a new window:

   Click the link to select the available years.
b. EBSCOhost Business Source Complete

If the full-text is available online in EBSCOhost Business Source Complete, click the link:

A new window will open showing a selection of years in the right screen. At present 2013 is not available in full-text in this resource. Click on any of the other years.

Each year will have a month/year selection. Click this to navigate to the full-text:
c. Factiva
If the full-text is available online in Factiva a window will open showing the Factiva search interface. Click the “Open in a new window” icon at the top right of the window. This will open the Factiva page for better navigation. From off-campus you will be prompted to enter your NetID and password.

Use the drop down arrow to change the Date. Change from In the last 3 months to All Dates. Next, click on Source and then type eiu country commerce into the Source search box. As you type the name of the resource will appear. Click on it and this will populate the search box. Next scroll up and type the name of the country and country commerce into the Free Text Search box using quotes. For example: “country commerce China” or “country finance Mexico.” Click the blue Search button in the right screen. The result list will show links to the full-text of the report.

Additional country information, data and profiles can be found in Business Source Complete, Global Market Information Database and IHS Global Insights or on the State Department’s website at: http://www.state.gov/misc/list/index.htm.
