Position Description

Position title: Actuarial Intern
Reports to: A Key Actuarial Representative

Company/department: Corporate Actuarial, Client Markets Pricing or Products Management
Date prepared:

Position summary:

Swiss Re Life & Health is looking for bright undergraduates who are actively pursuing a career in the actuarial sciences. Our summer internship program is designed to provide students with work assignments and projects that are challenging, educational and promote personal and professional development.

(Management retains the discretion to add or change the duties of the position at any time.)

Essential Responsibilities May Include Subsets of the Following:

- Responsible for assisting in the creation of pricing models
- Responsible for testing mortality or morbidity table updates
- Responsible for assisting in the preparation and analysis of mortality, morbidity and lapse experience data and periodic studies
- Responsible for supporting quarterly valuations and earnings analysis
- Responsible for supporting the maintenance of the reserve valuation system

Ancillary Responsibilities

- Responsible for compliance with the provisions of the Actuarial Development Program, including participation in student luncheons and other educational opportunities
- Develop technical skills with software and systems such as Visual Basic, SAS, FoxPro, AXIS and ARCVAL.
- Responsible for assisting in responses to requests of clients, reinsurance partners, regulators, internal and external auditors, and rating agencies

Requirements

- Requires attention to detail, good organization skills, and the ability to work independently
- Pursuit of degree in math or actuarial sciences with a GPA above 3.5.
- Prefer initiation of Society of Actuaries exams
- Technical skills using a desktop PC, Excel and Access, including visual basic