

Naveen Jindal School of Management

Doctor of Philosophy in International Management Studies

Curriculum

The PhD in International Management Studies (IMS) degree program is part of the Organizations, Strategy and International Management Area and focuses on the scholarly analysis of international, strategic and organizational management issues. Topics such as multinational management, corporate strategy, organizational design and change, technological and industrial development, entrepreneurship and managerial decision-making are examined.

PhD students in International Management Studies can specialize in one of the following areas:

- International Business
- Strategic Management
- Entrepreneurship
- Organizational Behavior

Financial support is available for highly qualified students.

Career Options

Graduates of the program seek positions such as: professor or public or private sector researcher.

Degree Program

The PhD in International Management Studies requires 75 semester credit hours minimum beyond the baccalaureate degree.

For complete admission and degree requirements, view the Graduate Catalog at catalog.utdallas.edu.

Contact Information

Riki Takeuchi
Professor

Email: Riki.Takeuchi@utdallas.edu

JSOM PhD Program Office

Naveen Jindal School of Management
The University of Texas at Dallas, SM33
800 West Campbell Road
Richardson, TX 75080-3021
Phone: 972-883-2745
Office: JSOM 3.708