

EXHIBIT EICHMANN

ACKERMAN CENTER FOR HOLOCAUST STUDIES

*He never pulled a trigger or flipped a switch.
He never lifted a shovel or lit a flame.
He sat behind his desk and wished himself a soldier;
Then hid behind others and called himself a pawn.*

SATURDAY

Grand Opening
Jan 27th, 2018 at 7pm
In front of the Ackerman Center

This exhibit was curated by graduate students in honor of International Holocaust Remembrance Day. Revisit the prosecution of an architect of the atrocity through multi-media artifacts. Examine how the Eichmann Trial brought the Holocaust into the world's spotlight and ushered in the Era of the Witness. Exhibit will be open for viewing until Friday, February 2nd, 2018.
