

Andrew Clarke is double majoring in ATEC (Arts, Technology, and Emerging Communications) and Visual Performing Arts (Music) and plans to graduate by 2023. At UTD, he has played trumpet for the Brass Ensemble, the Wind Ensemble, the Jazz Ensemble, and the University Orchestra. He is continuing his studies in music theory and piano.

Anna Rasmussen is a Mathematics major/Music minor who will be graduating in May 2021. After taking classical piano lessons for 14 years and voice lessons for 5 years before college, Anna continued her musical training at UTD by singing in the Chamber Singers ensemble for six semesters, as well as taking music theory, performance, and composition classes. Anna has also shared her music as a part of worship bands through the campus ministry, FOCUS, and her church. Anna has accepted a full-time offer to work as the Traveling Day Camp Director at a Christian camp and conference center in Kansas City, and hopes to continue sharing her music by singing in the Kansas City Symphony Chorus.

Shaun Yu is a junior majoring in Information Technology and Systems while minoring in music. Before transferring to UTD, he studied at Brazosport college for his Associates of Science while taking music classes. He has performed with the Brazosport Symphony Orchestra as a violinist, Brazosport Community Band as a percussionist, and Brazosport Jazz Band as a keyboardist. He also performed with the community theater as a violinist for their musical production. His goals are to work in Information Technology while continuing his musical journey, and one day perform with chamber groups.

Matthew Tran is a senior Mathematics major/Music minor who will be taking Fast Track graduate courses in the spring. An avid music theory student, Matthew has completed Theory III while studying piano at UTD. As well as serving as a youth leader for the Vietnamese Eucharistic Youth Society, Matthew enjoys drawing maps and solving advanced math problems. He would like to go on to hold a PhD in Math and also in Music!

Alan Tran is a pre-med major who will graduate in May of 2022 with two minors, Music and Spanish. Alan is a violinist and pianist for the UTD String and University Orchestras and currently serves as the Vice President of Comet Symphonique, an organization that represents the music ensembles at UTD. He is also a collaborative pianist at UTD, performing in a variety of small chamber ensembles. His freshman year, Alan performed the first movement of Rachmaninoff's Piano Concerto No. 2 with the UTD Orchestra and in 2019 he played for the UT Board of Regents Santa Rita Ceremony. After graduation, Alan plans to continue sharing music with others and to one day participate in the Van Cliburn Amateur Piano Competition.
