

PhD Psychological Sciences Degree Plan
School of Behavioral and Brain Sciences

Student: _____
 UTD ID: _____
 Admitted: _____

Area Head: Dr. Shayla Holub _____
 Advisor: _____
 Graduating: _____

Required Courses	Semester	Grade	Hours Earned	Transfer/ Waived	Comment
Proseminar (3 hrs)
HCS 6302	Issues in BBS Part I
Research Methods (9 hrs)
HCS 6312	Research Methods HCS Part 1
HCS 6313	Research Methods HCS Part 2
HCS 6317	Research Methods in Psychology
Core Courses (12 hrs):
Students will declare a concentration in Developmental Psychology, Cognitive Psychology, or Social/Personality Psychology. Students must take four core courses from those listed below. Two of these courses must be selected from the concentration, and the four courses must be selected from at least two of the four areas listed.
Developmental Psychology
HCS 6350	Social Development
HCS 6331	Cognitive Development
HCS 6368	Language Development
Cognition
HCS 6330	Cognitive Science
HCS 6395	Cognitive Psychology
HCS 6333	Memory
Social/Personality Psychology
HCS 6376	Social Psychology
HCS 6327	Personality
Neuroscience
HCS 6346	Systems Neuroscience
HCS 6338	Functional Neuroanatomy
Advanced Electives (9 hrs)
Any core course (see above) may count as an advanced elective (though it cannot count both as a core course and as an elective). One of these 3-hour elective courses must be an Advanced Research Methods course.
	Advanced Research Methods
Electives & Independent Studies

Hours Earned: 0

