

Individuals with social communication disorders secondary to autism often struggle with social communication. The demands of college and work can be very challenging. Young Adult Social Communication Groups support young adults ages 18 to 30 in developing important skills necessary in the college and work settings. The program is led by a licensed speech-language pathologist with the support of graduate student clinicians. Groups meet weekly.

Group 1 topics include:

- Initiating conversation with peers
- Commenting during conversation
- Topic maintenance
- Giving an appropriate amount of information
- Finding/keeping a job
- Success in school

Group 2 topics include:

- Social Thinking® concepts
- Handling miscommunication
- Making friends and dating
- Professional communication
- Working on a team
- Living independently
- Communicating through social media

Cost: $300 per fall and spring session / $150 for summer session + $75 nonrefundable enrollment fee
Reduced price for UT Dallas students.

When:

Group 1 (Wednesdays): 2:30 - 4:00 p.m.

Group 2 (Tuesday Program): 11:00 - 12:30 p.m.

Group 2 (Thursday Program) 1:00 - 2:30 p.m.

Where:

Callier Center Richardson
2895 Facilities Way | Richardson, Texas 75080

To enroll: An intake session must be scheduled for all new participants to determine placement in Group 1 or Group 2. Placement is determined by the group leader based on individual needs. Intakes are 30 minutes and $50 each. Contact cgollis@utdallas.edu to schedule.

Contact: Christina Gollis | cgollis@utdallas.edu

Callier Center for Communication Disorders

The Callier Center for Communication Disorders helps people communicate throughout their lives — to hear and be heard, to understand and be understood. For more than 50 years we have provided treatment, training and research to help people of all ages hear, speak and connect with others.