Responsibilities of Participants

Participant should:

1. Read and carefully consider all materials and/or information provided by the adviser that relates to safety, health, legal, environmental, political, cultural, and/or religious conditions in the area where you will be going.

2. Make available to the adviser accurate and complete physical and mental health information and any other personal data that is necessary in planning for a safe and healthy trip.

3. Assume responsibility for all the elements necessary for personal preparation for the program and participate fully in orientation.

4. Obtain and maintain appropriate insurance coverage and abide by any conditions imposed by the carriers.

5. Understand and comply with the terms of participation, codes of conduct, and emergency procedures of the program and obey the law.

6. Beware of local conditions and customs that may present health or safety risks when making daily choices and decision. Promptly express health or safety concerns to the staff adviser.

7. Behave in a manner that is respectful of the rights and well being of others, and encourage others to behave in a similar manner.

8. Accept responsibility for your own decisions and actions.

9. Follow the program policies for keeping program staff informed of participants whereabouts and well being.

I acknowledge that I have read the Student Life Off-Campus Travel and Field Trip Policy. I understand the requirements and conditions stated therein, and agree to abide by program and University regulations.
