Scholarships and Financial Aid

Each year, UT Dallas offers scholarships to qualified incoming freshmen. UT Dallas is proud to partner with high-achieving students and offers many scholarship opportunities for incoming students as well as all continuing students. Some scholarship programs provide funding throughout your university career, provided you continue to meet eligibility requirements.

University scholarships:

Academic Excellence Scholarship (AES): Your completed application to the University serves as your AES application. Award qualifications and amounts vary and are based on:

- Grades in all coursework.
- Success in Advanced Placement (AP), International Baccalaureate (IB) or dual credit courses.
- SAT or ACT scores.
- Class rank (when available).

Other University scholarship programs include the Eugene McDermott Scholars, National Merit Scholars, Terry Foundation Scholarship and Diversity Scholarship programs.

Other financial aid opportunities include grants, loans and work-study programs. In order to determine eligibility and take advantage of maximum funding availability, complete the FAFSA and TASFA, for Texas students, as soon as possible beginning October 1.

A current listing of scholarships is available at utdallas.edu/scholarships.

Tuition Costs

We’re serious about helping you maximize your investment — and it shows. For students interested in joining our academic community, cost should not be a barrier to reaching their goals.

- Approximately 70% of our students receive some form of merit- or need-based financial aid.
- Ranked #1 Best Value among Texas public universities by Forbes.
- In a national survey, U.S. News & World Report ranked UT Dallas one of the top 30 public universities for lowest student debt after graduation.

For the most current tuition estimates, refer to the financial aid website at utdallas.edu/finaid.

UT Dallas Outcomes

Internships and corporate collaborations help prepare UT Dallas students for real-world experience.

This translates into opportunity and practical knowledge about how to be a leader and a team player. Our students participated in more than 4,500 internships last year.

Learn more about career and internship possibilities at utdallas.edu/career.

Money Matters

Percent of Undergrads Who Have No Student Debt*

* Among graduating seniors who started their college careers at UT Dallas.

Scholarships and Financial Aid

Each year, UT Dallas offers scholarships to qualified incoming freshmen. UT Dallas is proud to partner with high-achieving students and offers many scholarship opportunities for incoming students as well as all continuing students. Some scholarship programs provide funding throughout your university career, provided you continue to meet eligibility requirements.

University scholarships:

Academic Excellence Scholarship (AES): Your completed application to the University serves as your AES application. Award qualifications and amounts vary and are based on:

- Grades in all coursework.
- Success in Advanced Placement (AP), International Baccalaureate (IB) or dual credit courses.
- SAT or ACT scores.
- Class rank (when available).

Other University scholarship programs include the Eugene McDermott Scholars, National Merit Scholars, Terry Foundation Scholarship and Diversity Scholarship programs.

Other financial aid opportunities include grants, loans and work-study programs. In order to determine eligibility and take advantage of maximum funding availability, complete the FAFSA and TASFA, for Texas students, as soon as possible beginning October 1.

A current listing of scholarships is available at utdallas.edu/scholarships.