Scope

The Chartfield Naming standards in this document apply to all chartfield values created and maintained by Financial System Administration.

Purpose

The Chartfield Naming standards are intended to provide documented definition of the format, structure, use, and maintenance of chartfield value data. Standardized naming conventions will help to achieve efficient use and reuse of data through better understanding of the chart of accounts.

Cost Center Naming Standards

All cost centers require a Long Description and Short Description. Long Descriptions are 30 characters long; Short Descriptions are 10 characters long.

The standard case type is Title case. Title case is also known as "headline style" and "capital case". All words capitalized, except for certain subsets defined by rules that are not universally standardized. Example (The Slow Brown Dog Walked Across [T/t]he Street)

Use a “–” in the long descriptions following a prefix.

The following categories of cost centers should follow the naming standards in the Cost Center Description table.
