To Whom It May Concern:

This is to confirm that The University of Texas at Dallas (School Code DAL214F00379000) has available on-campus instruction for Spring 2021, beginning:

- January 19, 2021: Full term Session
- March 18, 2021: Second 8-Week Session

International students admitted for the spring semester who are not subject to COVID-19 related travel restrictions are strongly encouraged to arrive on campus at UT Dallas for Spring 2021 for either the full 16-week term session or the second 8-week session. Students should enter the U.S. 15-30 days prior to the start of classes to fulfill quarantine, TB test, and other requirements in time to attend the first day.

Spring 2021 Course Offerings
The University of Texas at Dallas is dedicated to operating safely during the COVID-19 pandemic. UT Dallas will continue to offer modalities of learning for safe on campus learning during spring 2021 including:

- Traditional Classroom/Laboratory Course
- Blended (Hybrid) Classroom Course
- Flexible Mode
- Remote
- Online

International student enrollment will be closely monitored to ensure the appropriate enrollment in accordance with Department of Homeland Security (DHS) regulations and guidance.

Spring 2021 Quarantine Guidance
The university follows CDC guidelines regarding quarantine protocols after arrival in the U.S. Refer to information at https://www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/travelers/after-travel-precautions.html for the most up-to-date guidance. Current guidelines do not require quarantine upon return to the United States. However, this guidance could change, and students returning from abroad should be prepared to quarantine for up to a 14-day period prior to moving to campus housing or attending classes.
