WHAT IS I-20 TRANSFER FOR F-1 STUDENTS

An international student can transfer their SEVIS record from one school to another school, given they meet the following requirements:

- Have gained admission at the school where student is intending to transfer.
- Are F-1 students at another U.S. institution (currently enrolled, just graduated, on OPT, or completed their program).

SELECT A SITUATION THAT APPLYS TO YOU

If you will transfer to UT Dallas before completing the program at your current school. Your SEVIS record must be released to UT Dallas on or before the I-20 expiration date. You must receive a UT Dallas I-20 and enroll in the next immediate long session at UT Dallas.

If you will travel outside of the U.S. before beginning your semester at UTD: You should enter the U.S. with a UTD I-20. Submit the documents for a Transfer Pending I-20 and release your SEVIS record from your current school to UT Dallas before your planned date to enter the U.S.

If you are on CPT, OPT or working on-campus at your current school. Once your SEVIS record is released to UT Dallas, you are no longer authorized for employment at your current school. Any remaining CPT or OPT time will be lost. Students can work on campus only at the school that controls their SEVIS record. With a DSO’s permission, students can work on campus at the transfer-out school until the transfer release date. A student may begin employment at the transfer-in school after the transfer release date, but no sooner than 30 days before the program start date on the transfer-in school’s I-20. Contact the immigration advisor at the school that holds your SEVIS record for more details.

If you have graduated or completed your OPT period. Your SEVIS record must be released no later than 60 days after the completion date of your program or your OPT end date. Your UT Dallas program must start within 5 months of your record being released, the completion date of your program or your OPT end date, whichever comes first.

If you have just arrived to the U.S. with the visa and I-20 of another school and want to attend UT Dallas. Contact the school that holds your SEVIS record to follow the transfer-out procedure for students who have not yet enrolled. Your program at UT Dallas must start within 30 days of your arrival date in the U.S.

If you will not attend UT Dallas within 5 months of the transfer of your SEVIS record. Your SEVIS record may be completed, contact ISSOProspective@utdallas.edu regarding an initial I-20.

If your SEVIS record has been terminated, you have the following options:

1. Apply for reinstatement at the school that holds your SEVIS record. Once it is approved, transfer to UT Dallas. You may need to defer your UT Dallas admission.
2. Transfer your record and apply for reinstatement at UT Dallas.
3. Depart and re-enter the U.S. with an Initial I-20 from UT Dallas.
