iii)

Cost of the item.

(b) Financial records are to be submitted by each candidate to the Elections Board within two (2) school days of the conclusion of voting. Additionally, each ticket's campaign manager must submit aggregate ticket expenses. Failure to provide receipts documenting spending is grounds for bond forfeiture. Failure to submit a valid Financial Disclosure form is grounds for expulsion from the race.

The Elections Board shall provide standardized forms for the purposes of this code by the filing deadline.

Financial Disclosure forms shall show expenditures contributed to both ticket and personal expenses and shall show a clear delineation between the two. Ticket expenses are those that benefit the ticket or other ticket members, while personal expenses are those that benefit only one candidate.

Contributions to any candidate's campaign must be disclosed and valued at fair market value, as determined by the Elections Board.

(i) All donations must be accounted for on the Financial Disclosure Form.

(ii) Items donated must be rented from the donor at a reasonable market value. A candidate or party is not responsible for the cost of the item purchased, but must rent its use. In addition any modifications to an item or structure made that promote a candidate or party must be indicated on the Financial Disclosure Form.

(f) Each candidate's financial records shall be available for public inspection.

(7) Ticket Composition

- (a) Any group of candidates seeking to campaign jointly must register with the SG office by submitting a Ticket Registration Form.
- (b) Unregistered tickets which do campaign jointly will be subject to a $10.00 fine per candidate associated with the unregistered ticket. If a ticket remains unregistered after this fine, additional penalties may be levied at the discretion of the Elections Board.
- (c) Tickets which register before the end of filing shall have their candidate affiliations listed on the ballot.
- (d) Tickets must register a campaign manager who shall be responsible for the accurate and timely submission of financial disclosure forms for that ticket.
- (e) Ticket members are agents of the ticket. Tickets and/or individual ticket members may be penalized if ticket officials, members and/or agents violate this election code. The culpability of individuals and applicable penalties for violations shall be determined by the Elections Board.

- (f) Tickets do not require officer candidates in order to appear on the ballot. Officer candidates are not required to be members of a ticket, but any independent officer candidate must have a campaign manager.
- (g) The Elections Board reserves the right to ban ticket names for a variety of reasons including, but not limited to, names being offensive, infamous, inappropriate, or otherwise not in the spirit of the election.
- (h) No campaigning shall be allowed before a candidate or ticket has officially filed and been approved by EB Chair or the SG advisor to run for that position with the SG office. However, ticket building is allowed before this time.
- (i) Ticket building may not be used to solicit votes and should be limited to activities designed to organize and mobilize one's campaign.
- (j) Ticket building may not include mass e-mailing or solicitation of support at meetings of student organizations, or any other form of campaigning.
- (k) Ticket building may not occur around the SG headquarters or during a Senate/Committee meeting.
 - (l) The Elections Board has final jurisdiction over the definition of ticket building.
 - (m) Tickets shall contain a maximum of 10 candidates.

Section 3. Election Provisions

- (1) Voter rights and Procedures:
 - (a) Voting must be done by a student as defined in Article I.
 - (b) Voting shall be held online ballot.
 - (c) Voting procedure shall be set by the Elections Board prior to the start of voting.
 - (d) Voters have the right to secret ballot in all elections.
 - (e) Voters may abstain from any or all portions of a ballot.
 - (f) Once voting begins, the ballot may not be changed for any reason.
 - (g) Cast ballots shall be judged according to the standard of voter intent.
 - (h) Voters may write in a candidate for any election, except for run-off elections.
 - (i) Voters have the right to have an interpreter's assistance. SG will not be expected to provide any interpreters.
 - (j) To be allowed to vote, a prospective voter must
 - (i) provide their Comet Card or government-issued ID that matches a name in the registrar's list
- (2) (a) To be elected, any write-in candidate must:
 - (i) meet the requirements to seek and obtain office listed in the SG Constitution and Bylaws.
 - (ii) submit any documents necessary to file for and hold office, as determined by the SG office.
 - (iii) not have filed for any other office in the election cycle.
 - (iv) submit to this Code and to rulings and decisions made by the Elections Board.

- (v) In addition, any write-in candidate in a contested race must receive enough votes to meet the margin of victory requirements in subsection (4).
- (b) Write-in candidates may only campaign by “word-of-mouth,” which allows for verbal campaigning, but not via any written or printed materials.
 - (3) In order for a candidate to be elected, they must win by at least 50% plus one vote of the total votes cast in a two person race, by at least 40% of the total votes cast in a three or more person general race, or in an at-large race by being one of the top n vote-winners where n is the number of seats in the race, and may also be subject to the recount and runoff procedures in Sections 4 and 5.
 - (4) To take office, a candidate must accept their seat within three school days after the certification of the election.
 - (5) The election must be certified by the Elections Board by the end of the third class day following the closing of the polls unless lengthened by a three-day period in extraordinary circumstances as decided by a two-thirds majority of the Elections Board.
 - (6) In only truly exceptional circumstances, the Elections Board may, by a unanimous vote, void an election for one or all races in an election cycle and hold a new election as soon as it is reasonable but not strictly bound by the dates required by this Code. By a separate unanimous vote of the Elections Board, additional time may be granted for filing for the new elections. Decisions based on this subsection should be based primarily on fairness and on the enfranchisement of voters, and should not be made lightly.

Section 4. Recount Procedures

- (1) A recount shall be required if the margin of victory in any given race is less than one percent. The Elections Board, candidates, campaign managers and Student Government officers and staff shall be allowed to attend the recount.
- (2) In the event of a recount in a two-person race, one vote (50% plus one vote) is the necessary margin of victory. In a three or more candidate general election, the top two vote-getters overall proceed to the runoff if required by Section 5 (Runoff Procedures).
- (3) If a runoff is required, there must be a recount.
- (4) The Elections Board has full discretion over the means of recount and in extraordinary circumstances can call for a recount with a simple majority vote even without the above described conditions.

Section 5. Runoff Procedures

- (1) In a two candidate race, a run-off shall be necessary if neither candidate receives 50% plus one vote of the total ballots cast for that position.
- (2) In a three candidate or major candidate race, a run-off shall:
 - (a) be necessary if the candidate with the most votes lacks 40% or more of the total votes cast for the position or the margin of victory is less than 1% of

- the total votes cast for the position.
- (b) if required, be between only the top two vote-earners for the position.
- (3) In a run-off election, voters may not write in candidates.
 - (4) Run-off spending limits are defined in Section 2(5) of this code.
 - (5) This Code may not be amended between a general election and a run-off election.
 - (6) The winner of a run-off election shall be the candidate who receives at least 50% plus one vote of the total votes cast in the run-off election.
 - (7) If the margin of victory in a run-off election is less than 1% of the total votes cast in the run-off election, a recount shall be held under the guidelines in Section 4 of this Code.
 - (8) If, after a recount, no candidate has received at least 50% of plus one vote of the total votes cast in the run-off election, the winner will be elected by a simple majority vote in the Senate.

Section 6. Elections Board Composition

- (1) The Elections Board shall be responsible for the fair administration of Student Government Elections. Additionally, it shall serve as an arbiter in disputes involving tickets and/or individual candidates.
 - (2) The Chair of the Elections Board shall be a current member of Student Government not affiliated with any candidate or party. The Chair shall have no vote, except in case of a tie due to an abstention. The Chair shall be appointed by a majority of the Executive Committee and confirmed by a majority of the Student Government Senate.
 - (3) The Elections Board shall be made up of a representative appointed from each school by each Dean.
 - (a) The term of office shall be for one election cycle.
 - (b) No member of the Elections Board shall be an officer or officer candidate of any student-fee supported body, whether elected or appointed, except SG.
 - (4) Members of the Elections Board shall only be permitted to resign for the following reasons:
 - (a) Sincere belief of the member that they can no longer be unbiased and fair.
 - (b) Illness.
 - (c) Family emergency.
 - (d) Other reasons as approved by the Chair on a case-by-case basis.
 - (5) Any member of the Elections Board may be removed for just cause by the Executive Committee should a member of Student Government make such an appeal. Members may only be removed for the following reasons:
 - (a) The member is no longer a student.
 - (b) There is evidence the member has shown blatant bias in favor of or in opposition to a party or a candidate.
 - (c) The member has not been fulfilling the duties of the office.
 - (d) The student has engaged in gross misconduct unbecoming of the Elections Board or has failed to uphold the values of the University.

(6) The Elections Board shall appoint a Secretary from its membership who shall be responsible for recording the minutes of its meetings and hearings, and keeping records of all opinions, rulings, and filings required of candidates under this Code.

(a) The Secretary shall provide a written copy of all decisions concerning individual candidates to the candidates involved and to the highest officer of Student Government not running in the election.

(b) The Secretary shall file a copy of all minutes with the Chair of the Judicial Board and the highest officer of Student Government not running in the election within 48 hours of the decision. Failure to do so may result in revocation of duties by the Elections Board Chair.

(c) Records of rulings and other documents from an election may be retained by the Elections Board for the purpose of advisement of future boards, and for the resolution of any problems that might arise in the long-term campus electoral process.

(7) Results of any election under this Code shall be announced in accordance with Section 3 of this code.

(8) The Elections Board may assess and execute the remedies and sanctions provided in this Code if it finds violation of either provisions of this Code or Elections Board rulings.

(9) The Elections Board shall certify the fairness of each campaign with its election processes and results in a report to the Senate, and make the report available to the public before the next Senate meeting.

(10) All promotional material regarding the election issued by Student Government shall be approved by the Elections Board Chair to ensure objectivity and fairness.

Section 7. Elections Board Jurisdiction

(1) In pursuit of its duties, the Elections Board may impose sanctions on violators of any aspect of this Code or the rulings of the Elections Board. The Elections Board has original jurisdiction of the Student Government Election Code. The Election Board shall review appeals regarding issues of fact in all cases or controversies arising under this Code in which the Elections Board has issued a final decision. Upon review, the Elections Board may uphold the sanctions imposed by the Elections Board.

(2) The Elections Board shall have the authority to issue an advisory opinion about any matter concerning the election process not covered in this Code or the SG Constitution.

(a) An advisory opinion shall be binding on the election for the duration of the election cycle in which it is issued.

(b) The Elections Board shall not be required to hold a hearing in connection with the issuance of an advisory opinion.

(c) An advisory opinion may be amended after issuance, provided that no substantial injury or hardship to the student body or election process results from such action.

(d) All advisory opinions, except those regarding innovative campaigning methods not described in this Code or the Election Manual, must be issued before the filing period is concluded.

(3) In carrying out the duties of the office, the Elections Board shall conduct proceedings and hearings necessary to fulfill those duties. In executing those duties they shall have the authority:

(a) to issue written notice to require candidates and agents and to request students to appear and give testimony, as well as produce necessary records; and

(b) to inspect the financial reports of any candidate and make these records available for public scrutiny upon request.

(4) Any organization selecting officers or hosting a referendum by participating in the student body elections governed by the Elections Board shall defer jurisdiction of election procedures to the Judicial Board, subject to Senate approval.

(5) Certain administrative issues, such as a candidate's failure to attend mandatory meetings or hearings, may be handled without requiring the complaint procedures outlined in Section 8.

Section 8. Elections Board Hearings

(1) Members of the Elections Board are prohibited from filing complaints. If a member shall discover violations of the Code or Precedents, that member shall be obligated to stop the violation. Should the illegal actions persist, the Elections Board shall, in writing, inform all affected parties of the violations.

(2) Any student may file a complaint with the Elections Board. All complaints must be filed in the Student Government office under the name of the student filing the complaint. The Elections Board shall act on all complaints within one school day after receiving the complaint by either dismissing the complaint or calling a hearing under the provisions of this Section.

(3) Candidates have a duty to negotiate in good faith when disputes arise and must attempt to reach a settlement consistent with this code and Elections Board decisions prior to filing a complaint. The party filing the complaint must provide a document to the Elections Board describing the steps that were taken to resolve the dispute.

(4) The Elections Board may dismiss a complaint if:

(a) the complaint was not filed within twenty-four (24) hours after learning of the injury;

(b) the Elections Board lacks jurisdiction over the subject or party in the dispute as defined in Section 7;

(c) the complaint fails to state a cause of action for which relief may be granted;

(d) the complainant has not and likely will not suffer injury or damage;

- (e) the complaint is frivolous;
- (f) the complaint is filed after the votes have been counted.

(5) If a complaint is not dismissed, a hearing must be held. The Elections Board shall inform, in writing, the complaining party and all individuals or groups named in the complaint of the time and place of the hearing, but verification of contact is not required to hold a hearing. A copy of the complaint shall also be sent to all parties involved.

(6) The hearing shall be held as soon as possible within the established working hours of the election, but no sooner than six working hours after the first attempt at notification.

(7) At the time notice of a hearing is issued, the Elections Board, by majority vote, may issue temporary limitations or restraints if it determines that such action is necessary to prevent undue or adverse effects on any individual or entity. Any restriction, once issued, will remain in effect until a decision of the Elections Board is announced after the hearing or until rescinded by majority vote of the Elections Board.

(8) All Elections Board hearings and proceedings must be open to the public. The deliberations of the Elections Board shall be closed, though the Board shall have the discretion to invite students to these meetings to clear points of fact.

(9) Each involved party shall be present at the hearing and may be accompanied by one other student who may counsel and/or represent the party before the Elections Board.

(10) For any hearing, a quorum of sitting Elections Board members must be in attendance with the Chair of the Elections Board presiding. In the absence of the Chair, the responsibility to preside shall fall to an Elections Board member designated by the Chair.

(11) The Elections Board shall determine the format for the hearing, but must require that both the complaining and responding parties appear physically before the board to discuss the issues through a complaint, answer, rebuttal, and rejoinder format. The purpose of the hearing is to gather the information necessary to make a decision, order, or ruling that will resolve an election dispute. To effectuate this purpose, the following rules should prevail at all hearings:

(a) Complaining parties shall be allowed no more than two witnesses; however, Elections Board may call witnesses in accordance with Section 7 of this Code. If witnesses are unable to appear at the hearing, signed affidavits may be submitted to the Elections Board Chair for the purpose of testifying by proxy.

(b) The Elections Board must approve both the absence of a candidate as well as that candidate's chosen representative.

(c) All questions and discussion by the parties in dispute shall be directed to the Elections Board.

(d) There shall be no direct or cross-examination of any party or witness by complaining or responding parties during hearings.

(e) Reasonable time limits may be set by the Elections

Board, provided they give fair and equal treatment to both sides.

(f) The complaining party shall bear the burden of proof, and they must show evidence of actual, not merely potential loss. The Elections Board shall determine what constitutes a loss in its rulings.

(12) Decisions, orders, and rulings of the Elections Board must be concurred to by a majority of the Elections Board present and shall be announced as soon as possible after the hearing.

(a) Such decisions may be announced orally or in writing.

(b) The Elections Board shall issue a written opinion of the ruling within twenty-four (24) hours of announcement of the decision.

(c) The written opinion must set forth the findings of fact by the Elections Board and the conclusions of law in support of the decision.

(d) Written opinions shall set a precedent for a time period of three election cycles for Elections Board rulings, and shall guide the Elections Board in its proceedings.

(e) Upon consideration of prior written opinions, the Board may negate the decision, but must provide written documentation of reasons for doing so.

(13) If the decision of the Elections Board is appealed to the Judicial Board, the Elections Board must immediately submit its ruling to that body.

Section 9. Remedies and Sanctions

(1) The Elections Board shall select the remedy or sanction most appropriate to both the type and severity of the infraction, as well as the state of mind or intent of the violator as determined by the Elections Board. Possible remedies and sanctions include, but are not limited to, fines, suspension of campaigning privileges, and disqualification from the election.

(2) The Elections Board has the authority to fine a candidate, but the total amount of fines against a candidate in an election cycle may not exceed $100, and any such fines do not affect spending limits.

(3) If fines are not paid by the time Financial Disclosure forms are due, it shall be considered adequate grounds for removal from the race.

(4) If, after a hearing, the Elections Board finds that provisions of this Code were violated by a candidate, or a candidate's agents, the Elections Board may restrict the candidate or the candidate's agents from engaging in some or all campaign activities for some or all of the remainder of the campaign. If an order is issued covering only part of the remaining campaign period, it shall take effect immediately.

(5) In the event the officials of a ticket have committed repeated or egregious violations of this Code or the prior decisions, opinions, orders, or rulings of the Elections Board, the entire ticket may be disqualified; however, the following procedures shall be in effect:

(a) The Elections Board has the right to grant immunity to a candidate or a group of candidates who, in good faith, come to the board with a complaint about violations their ticket has committed or conspired to commit in violation of this Code. These candidates shall not be disqualified with the rest of their ticket, should it be removed from the election.

(b) Ticket disqualification may only occur with the unanimous vote of the Elections Board, and an appeal shall automatically be filed with the Judicial Board on the behalf of the disqualified ticket. The only exception to the unanimous requirement is for a ticket convicted of engaging in voter fraud, in which case a simple majority shall disqualify the ticket.

(c) Any party adversely affected by a decision of the Elections Board may file an appeal with the Judicial Board after the adverse decision is announced.

Section 10. Filing/Election Dates

(1) Spring Elections

(a) Filing shall begin on the Monday seven (7) school weeks prior to the beginning of the elections and shall conclude at 12:00 p.m. one week prior to the beginning of the scheduled election. The week of spring break shall not count as a school week.

(b) A minimum of 5 campaign orientation meetings will be held before the end of filing to answer any questions and review the Election Code with candidates or potential candidates.

(c) Campaigning will start three (3) school weeks prior to the end of filing and shall conclude at the end of voting

(dc) Student Government elections shall be held by the end of March on three consecutive days, except in unusual circumstances as determined by a majority vote of the Elections Board.

(2) Late filing shall not be allowed.

(3) A mandatory meeting for all candidates shall be held at noon on the last day of filing. If a candidate has class or another obligation, they shall schedule a meeting with the SG advisor before the mandatory meeting.

(4) Filing packets containing the Election Code, election dates, important information, forms and necessary waivers shall be distributed to students who file for office. Violations of rules in the packet fall under the jurisdiction of the Elections Board, and violators may be subject to sanctions.

Section 11. Changes to Election Code

No part of the election code may be changed or altered from the beginning of the filing period until the election results have been determined.
