10) Suggestions:
   a. 2017-20s: I am disappointed by and concerned about the inadequate response to a potentially disastrous emergency situation on the UT Dallas campus on 6/27/2017. According to an article on the Dallas Morning News, the threat call was received at approximately 2:00 PM. I did not receive an alert until 2:33 PM, a full 33 minutes after the potential threat was known by public safety officials. The DMN article does state that the UTD police "didn't believe the threat was real" but common sense dictates that they would err on the side of caution and notify the UTD community much, much sooner than they did. Instead, they chose to make an assumption at the expense of safety. Furthermore, the messaging was vague and failed to elicit adequate cooperation from much of the community, as evidenced by the large number of people who remained in buildings long after the communications were sent. Lives were potentially at stake yesterday and something needs to be done to ensure that notifications in the future are sent much sooner. I hope this failure serves as a wakeup call and that our campus administration will take the necessary steps to fix emergency-response communications procedures and better ensure the safety of our community.

b. New Suggestions
   i. 2017-16s: Ay man some of the staff at UTD seriously need some sensitivity training. One of my friends came into work all teary eyed today because some of her professors and other staff at UTD, especially the Education Abroad office, were really cold. My friend's mom literally just passed away and when she informed Education Abroad about her mom/financial situation they were so inconsiderate. It's understandable that you can't waive your fees but they gave no condolences, no nothing. They acted like her mom dying wasn't a big deal so much that they completely ignored it. How hard is it to type "our condolences" in an email? Y'all need sensitivity training ASAP. It may not mean a lot to you guys but it would mean a lot to her and other students if you just showed that you cared a little. (Anon.)

1. Per Katie Terry – Suggests forming an e-mail, referring grieving student to a counselling center
   a. Per David Richardson – Suggests forwarding it to Educational Offices
   b. Per Matt Brown – Financial Aid tries to maintain sympathies for such events.
   c. Per Rebeca Ballard – Suggests pushing Comet Pride more often
   d. Per Bill Lacava – Suggests Emotional Intelligence Training – should forward to the Education Abroad Offices
   e. Per Marco Mendoza – Happy to follow up if Staff is not receptive.
      i. Per Melissa Wyder – Motions to forward to Marco and Educational Offices.
         1. Per Chad Thomas – Motions to send to Educational Abroad with recommendations that HR has training available.
         2. Per Pam Stanley – 2nds motion to forward as amended
         3. Rejected

ii. 2017-17s: I strongly recommend that UT Dallas add a campus shuttle and discontinue the use of Comet Cabs as the primary method for moving students, faculty and staff around campus. In my experience, the growth of UT Dallas can no longer function without a larger method of transit. In addition, I have worked at three different institutions including UT Arlington where there was a shuttle that cruised the perimeter of campus. It's frustrating to have to get into my car just to drive from JSOM to SPN for example.

1. Per Melissa Wyder – Will take this to Parking and Transportation
   a. Per Bill Lacava – A new shuttle is being added to the Phase 1 area/Comet Creek
      i. Per Melissa Wyder – Motions reject and forward to Parking and Transportation
      ii. Katie Terry – 2nds Motion
      iii. Rejected
iii. 2017-18s: The [name redacted], is extremely rude and hard to work with. She is temperamental and several of our student volunteers refused to work again with her because of her attitude. We don't understand how she could be so polite one moment and then start aggressively saying things such as "hurry up or: you're out of time, you need to do better" the next moment. Please appoint another person we can talk with aside from her. (Anon.)

1. Per Pinky Reyes – Has not seen this behavior in question from the person mentioned.
   a. Per Melissa – Reluctant to have any employee discussed in meetings without them being able to speak. Does not want to accept as a suggestion, or encourage the use of Staff Council in this manner.
   b. Per Marco Mendoza – Are you required to bring everything to the floor?
      i. Per Naomi Emmett – Has been handled that way in the past for transparency ii. Per Sandee Goertzen – Initially set up that the Executive Board had some sway on what is brought to the Council, but normally everything is brought to the Council.
      iii. Per Katie Terry – Will add on the Flare that for comments, send to the Staff Council e-mail, not the suggestions. So the sender may be referred to HR or a certain department as necessary.
   c. Per Pinky Reyes - We need a platform to find out more information to address these things/forward them. We do not know the particulars of the situation.
      i. Per Marco Mendoza – Happy to address these issues, but if they are accepted it becomes an avenue for complaints.
      ii. Per Naomi Emmett – Ad Hoc needed to discuss handling of comments
         1. Per Jamie Abrams – As a member of the Ad Hoc, comments come into the suggestion box because they feel it’s a staff issue. That the Council can get the ball rolling/point things out. Will be having more discussion, but are considering setting up a separate ‘Comments’ box for comments only and separate section on the Agenda.
         2. Per Melissa Wyder – Would rather not have the sender decide what is a comment or suggestion.
            a. Per Jamie Abrams – Executive Board will have final say on Comment VS Suggestion that comes in.

iii. Per Rebecca Ballard – Believes HR matters should not be handled in a public forum. Staff Council is a public forum. We need to add a disclaimer that says ‘If comments are HR-related, it will be referred to HR and not discussed in a public forum’

1. Per Dominic Kollasch – Agree and thinking along those line. However, limit it to issues regarding individuals; not that all things will be funneled to HR.

2. Per Bill Lacava – Can we add something on the website that tells what is a comment VS proposal?
   a. Per Jamie Abrams - Currently everything that comes in is being treated like a proposal, but we will be adding an FAQ page for common issues. Asking that people check there first before asking.
   b. Per Dennis Guten – Also may need to change wording as it is currently ‘suggestions’. May consider changing it to ‘proposals’.
   c. Per Naomi Emmett – Everything is a suggestion first and a proposal if adopted.
   d. Per Sandee Goertzen – It’s a numerical system for both for archival and organization purpose. Also suggests editing out the title on Minutes/recording for anonymity.

   i. Per Katie Terry – For now we should change the text on the website to say ‘please do not use names or titles’ when submitting. Please refer personnel concerns to HR.

   ii. Per Dominic Kollasch – We are here to support, but personnel is a good distinction.
iv. 2017-19s: Members of Staff want to start a Cat Coalition on campus to support TNR (trap-neuter-return) of feral cats that live at UTD. The organization used to exist, but it was student-led. It eventually ended because there were no students willing to keep it going. What would the process be to create a Cat Coalition on campus that is staff-led?

1. Per Katie Terry – This came from someone in our department, and the policy that is in place? The form doesn’t work.
   a. Per Naomi Emmett - There is a policy, UTD Policy 106, but it was for students.
   b. Per Shelly Turner – There has been a meeting but more information is needed.
   c. Per Marco Mendoza – Can this be done through an affinity group?
      i. Per Shelly Turner – Through ERGs (Employee Resource Groups)
         1. Per Marco Mendoza – Check ERGs for processes.
   d. Per Melissa Wyder – Suggests forwarding this to Shelly.
      i. Per Katie Terry – Forward the resources to the person who suggested this and have Shelly update.

Bug logo replaced by the new circular UTD monogram, which does not replace the Texas UT Dallas logo. Katie will have a slide at the meeting explaining the new policy.

Possibly change staff council badges because they have the bug logo on them?
The Fundraising Committee

Did not meet in July. The next big event is this Saturday!
Legends Car Wash, Saturday, July 15th, 10AM – 4PM, Coit Road location
It will be a grill day, so there will be free food for staff council and the customers. We are looking for volunteers for 2-hour time slots to help participate with this event.
