

UT Dallas Teacher Candidate Enrollment Calendar

UT Dallas has a rolling enrollment for students seeking their teacher certification. Students (including transfer students) must enroll with at least 12 hours at UTD and generally are sophomores or juniors. All post-baccalaureate students are admitted immediately upon entrance into the university.

Official Admission	Coursework	Pre-clinical Teaching Semester	Clinical Teaching
Students are notified by Certification officer. Formal offer is extended through email. Students must immediately respond to the offer by responding "I accept", by UT Dallas email. In addition, students must set up TEAL (to get TEA login), ECOS (Educator online System) and ETS accounts within a seven day time period before official admission is complete.	Students complete required coursework for both their certification classes and their degree.	Students are encouraged to take advantage of university resources to prepare for their PPR and content exams. Students must test before they are allowed to enter clinical teaching. Students must have completed their 30 hours of fieldwork by the end of this semester.	Students complete a minimum of 15 weeks of clinical teaching. After students' degrees are posted, they are encouraged to apply for certification. Post-bacs can apply as soon as they are finished with clinical teaching.
