Authority and Conflict of Interest Management

Decision authority for the Center resides with the Interim Director unless a conflict of interest is present.

Where a conflict of interest, real or perceived, exists with the Interim Director, decision authority is granted to the Associate Director. The Associate Director reports directly to the Dean of BBS, or their affiliated school, to avoid a conflict of interest with the Interim Director.